It's okay, thematically interesting, could do with a 600+ piece puzzle. This is one of their better packs that has been released in a while. The price is a little bit steep - but I prefer the puzzle packs that have multiple puzzles in them with smaller pieces.

Puzzles range from 96 pieces to 400 pieces, and there are 18 puzzles total - making this one of the bigger original puzzle packs released (original meaning that it was released for this game, and not one of the previously released "pixel puzzles" games).

The puzzles are colorful, fun and they usually have a good reference point of colors - making them easier to complete than puzzles that are all one color. Definitely recommend this pack (but probably on sale), since some of these puzzles won't take you very long.
